

Human Services Programs

humanservices.chemeketa.edu

The Human Services programs offer training for entry-level positions in human service agencies. These two-year career and technical education programs combine academic coursework with 25 credits of supervised field work at two different sites, each of which is at least two terms long. Students select one of two degrees: Addiction Studies or Social Services.

This program has special admissions requirements and enrollment limits. Students with criminal histories may be prevented from obtaining necessary field experience required for program completion. Parole and probation requirements must be completed prior to referral to a practicum site. Students recovering from chemical dependency who elect the Addiction Studies AAS degree must have a minimum of two years continuous sobriety in an unrestricted environment before they will be referred to practicum. For additional information, contact the Admissions Office at 503.399.5006.

Post B.A./B.S. students are also eligible to complete the Addiction Counselor Certification Preparation program and earn a one-year certificate. Admission to the certificate program is assessed individually by Donna Hirt, 503.399.6157. Students recovering from chemical dependency must have a minimum of two years continuous sobriety in an unrestricted environment in order to be referred to practicum. Criminal history and parole/probation limitations apply to students in this program as well.

By enrolling in the CPL120 Credit for Prior Learning Résumé course, you may be able to earn credits for prior learning you acquired through your job, non-credit classes, community or volunteer service, or individual study.

Total required credit may vary due to three to four credit conversion. Chemeketa degree and certificate minimum requirements must be met.

Program outcomes

Students completing the AAS degrees will:

- Describe the nature of human systems: individual, group, organization, community, and society, and their major interactions.
- Describe the conditions that promote or limit optimal functioning and classes of deviations from desired functioning in the major human systems.
- Identify and select interventions that promote growth and goal attainment.
- Plan, implement, and evaluate interventions.
- Select interventions that are congruent with the values of one's self, clients, the employing organization, and the human services profession.
- Use process skills to plan and implement services.

In addition to the AAS outcomes, students completing Addiction Studies AAS and Addiction Counselor Certification Preparation will:

- Describe, identify, assess, and treat addictions.

In addition to the AAS outcomes, students completing Social Services AAS will:

- Adapt intervention and assessment skills to a variety of agency settings including, but not limited to: crisis counseling, employment services, children's protective services, self-sufficiency, housing, mental health, corrections, and advocacy.

Getting started

The first step to entering the two-year program is to take part in an assessment process which includes taking the college's free placement test and meeting with Counseling and Career Services. You may need to complete pre-program courses (HS152 and WR121 must be completed with a grade of C or better.) A counselor will help you develop an individualized program of study, which may include one or more of the following:

HS152	Stress Management	1
MTH020	Basic Mathematics	4
RD090	College Textbook Reading.....	3
WR121	English Composition–Exposition.....	4

If you have questions about the requirements, contact Counseling and Career Services at 503.399.5120 or 503.399.5048. Failure to be assessed may delay your entry into program classes.

Addiction Studies Associate of Applied Science

The Addiction Studies AAS degree trains students to work in public and private agencies treating chemically-dependent people and their families. Training sites include both residential and out-patient programs.

The Addiction Studies programs are recognized by the National Association of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselors as an educational provider. Most courses may be used for continuing education requirements for many certified and licensed professionals. The curriculum includes courses in alcohol and drug information, family dynamics, case management, and individual and group counseling skills.

In addition to tuition, estimated costs for students who complete the entire program listed below are books, $2,646; class fees, $231; universal fee, $1,070; equipment and supplies, $253; measles vaccine, $15. Contact the Financial Aid Office at 503.399.5018 to find out if you qualify for help with these costs.
