

Supplies for Watercolor Basics with Deanna White-

* We will discuss buying your art supplies, types of paper, paints, and other needs during the first day of class. Bring along any supplies you have to the first class.

* Supply List

- Drawing paper, soft leaded drawing pencil and white eraser
- Brushes
 - One #12 or #14 Round brush * - a "must have"
 - Buy either a 1" or 1 1/2" Flat brush and or a 3/4" or 1" Angled brush

Buy the highest quality synthetic or natural brush you can afford. Synthetic brushes such as Robert Simmons and Richeson work very well for watercolor.

- Paper: 2 individual sheets of 140-pound cold press Arches watercolor paper
- Watercolor Paint: Buy one tube each of:
 - Aurelian yellow
 - Alizarian crimson (red)
 - Ultramarine Blue.
 - I will discuss other favorites during class.

- Miscellaneous
 - 12" x 16" or larger board for easel (foam core, corrugated plastic or masonite board)
 - 2 large Bull Dog Clips or blue "painters tape" at a Hardware store, to hold down paper.
 - Paper towels, sponge, and large water container
 - Hair dryer
 - One bottle of Frisket, also called Masking fluid. "Incredible white mask" is my favorite brand.
 - One sheet Sally's graphite erasable "Transfer paper" and One sheet tracing paper.
 - Favorite photos
- Optional only Items
 - Foam type picnic plates for a palate, water spray bottle, clear wax crayon, 1 sheet "hot press" paper to try and/or 1/2 sheet yupo paper.
