To be in Good Academic Standing, Chemeketa requires students to earn a cumulative and term GPA of 2.0 or higher each term.

This is not a Financial Aid Appeal. The Student Success Contract consists of required activities, an academic plan for success, and a course plan. These plans are designed to assist in academic success and returning to Good Academic Standing. It is vital to follow and complete all parts of this contract.

Explain any relevant factors that contributed to the student's academic challenges at Chemeketa.

List the specific action steps discussed and agreed upon with the student that the advisor/counselor recommends for the student to be successful at Chemeketa.
