

Chemeketa Community College Public Procurement Grant Application

The National Association of State Procurement Officials (NASPO) has partnered with Chemeketa Community College to offer financial assistance for procurement professionals seeking to enhance their skills through the BA235 Principles of Public Procurement course for fall term. The grant includes tuition, fees and textbook.

STUDENT SECTION

Last Name

First Name

Middle initial

Chemeketa Student ID/K# (If attended or attending CCC)

Contact Phone

Address

City

Zip

Preferred Email

Yes—I commit to attending both in person and online classes each Tuesday and Thursdays.

Tuesday classes will be held online. Thursday class will be held from 12:30–2:20 pm, at Chemeketa’s Salem campus in Building 3, room 107.

In 300–400 words, describe your professional goals and what you hope to gain from this course.

Student Signature

Date

Note: Starting, September 28, you must commit to attending each Thursday class from 12:30–2:20 pm in addition to the online portion on Tuesdays. Must have supervisor support to qualify for this grant. Up to ten grants will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

EMPLOYMENT SECTION

Organization

Supervisor Contact

Address

City/Zip

Phone

Supervisor email

Supervisor Signature

Date

Note: By signing this application, you are stating your approval of this applicant’s registration in BA235 Principles of Public Procurement.

Submit application by mail or email by 8/31/2017 —
Chemeketa Community College c/o Karen Edwards
4000 Lancaster Dr. NE, Salem, OR 97305
Email karen.edwards@chemeketa.edu | 503.399.3996

