Electives	7		Any Liberal Studies courses (not career-technical or remedial)	6

In addition to the General Education requirements, it is beneficial to choose courses for the remaining 20 hours in an area in which you may want to major unless a major has not been declared yet. Any liberal studies courses (not career-technical or remedial) would be valuable. It is recommended that courses suggested as Accepted as electives above be chosen.

(Over)

Corban College accepts the Oregon Transfer Associate of Arts degree with the following conditions: 1) All coursework must be 100-level or higher. 2) Does not meet Biblical Education requirements. 3) May not always meet the Thought and Culture sequences which are required for the bachelors degree at Corban. The Thought and Culture courses must be satisfied with 16 semester hours in U S History, Western Civilization, Literature and Fine Arts. 4) Must include 62 semester hours (92 quarter hours) with a grade of C- or higher in all transferable courses to enter with junior class standing.

NOTES:

1. 70 semester hours (105 quarter credits) is the maximum number of hours that can be transferred from Chemeketa to Corban.
2. After acceptance to the college, all students will receive a transcript evaluation before the first term of attendance. The application fee is non-refundable.
3. Students transferring with less than 47 quarter units of college work must qualify for admission on the basis of SAT or ACT scores, and academic transcripts from both high school and colleges attended.
4. Only course work with a "C-" or better will be accepted.
5. Courses numbered below 100 are not generally accepted by Corban College.
6. References (including two personal and one pastoral) are strongly considered for admission to Corban College.
7. Application for financial aid should be mailed between January 1 and February 1 to receive priority consideration for fall term.

This guide is subject to change without notice and should not be regarded as a contract between Corban College and students attending Chemeketa Community College.
