

College Board of Education Series—1000

LEGAL COUNSEL

The Chemeketa Community College Board of Education shall select a qualified attorney to represent the College Board of Education and the college as general counsel. When appropriate, other attorneys may be used for unique situations. Any attorney being retained shall be available to attend any College Board of Education meeting upon request, counsel on specific issues, make recommendations for action/resolution, represent in negotiations for resolution, represent in court, or any other legal services deemed appropriate.¹
