ACADEMIC HONESTY

Prevention/Philosophy

As members of a community of people seeking to foster growth through education, Chemeketa students are expected to act in a manner that promotes the college’s mission, vision and values. In addition, choosing to join the college community obligates each member to adhere to the College’s Community Standards, which includes Academic Honesty and Personal Integrity.

All faculty, staff, and administrators can aid in creating a culture of academic integrity by sharing their commitment to these values with students. Faculty are encouraged to share the value of academic integrity and the importance of trust and respect on the syllabus for each course they teach. To assist students in choosing ethical behavior, faculty can remind students before major assignments and exams about Chemeketa’s commitment to maintaining a culture of honesty. Continuing college-wide professional development and active student involvement in academic integrity initiatives create awareness and support for Chemeketa’s culture of integrity.

Action/Steps by Faculty

1. If a faculty member suspects a violation of the Chemeketa Community College Academic Honesty Policy, the faculty member shall collect evidence documenting the alleged act of academic dishonesty. The evidence may include various samples of the student’s work, SafeAssign results, and copies of resources used but not cited.

2. The faculty member observing or investigating an apparent violation of academic honesty meets with the student whenever possible and shares the Chemeketa Community College Academic Honesty Policy and guidelines. The faculty member explains to the student the procedures and penalties for violation of academic honesty.

3. The faculty member provides the student an opportunity to explain the incident.

4. If, after initial investigation, the faculty member determines that there was no violation of academic honesty, the process is concluded and no further action is required.

5. If, after initial investigation, the faculty member reasonably believes that there has been some violation of academic honesty, the faculty member will determine an appropriate course of action, which may include:
   a) Oral or written disciplinary admonition and warning
   b) Temporary exclusion from class, lab, clinical not to exceed one class session
   c) A grade of “F” or a zero for the assignment, project, or examination
   d) A lower grade or grade of “F” or “No Pass” for the course (which overrides a student’s ability to withdraw from the course)
   e) Requirement to complete an Academic Integrity Seminar (online or in person)
   f) Requirement to meet with the Academic Integrity Coordinator
   g) Referral to support services such as Tutoring and/or Peer Mentoring

6. The violation is documented using the online Academic Honesty Concern Report form. All supporting documentation should be submitted with the Concern Report form.

7. If the faculty member suspects, but has no documenting proof of a student’s violations of the Academic Honesty policy, the faculty member is still encouraged to document the suspected incident using the online Academic Honesty Concern Report form as a Potential Concern. If repeated reports of suspected Academic Honesty violations are reported, the student will be referred to the Academic Integrity Coordinator.

8. Upon submission of the online Academic Honesty Concern Report form and supporting documentation, it is automatically routed to the office of the Executive Dean of Students and the appropriate Academic Dean or Director.

9. If the sanction includes an “F” or “No Pass” for the course, the student is prohibited from dropping the course. When an Academic Honesty Concern Report is received with this sanction, the office of the Executive Dean of Students will place a temporary “HOLD” on the student’s account preventing the student from dropping the course to avoid being awarded an “F” or “No Pass”. If for any reason the student is able to drop the course, they will be administratively added back into the course and the grade of “F” or “No Pass” will be reflected on the transcript.

Action/Steps by Executive Dean of Students

1. Executive Dean of Students or their representative will review the Academic Honesty Concern Report form within one week of receipt.

2. A copy of the report will be sent to the student via email with a letter of explanation and the student’s rights to appeal within 10 business days of receiving the report. The faculty member and Academic Dean or Director will be copied on this communication.

3. A copy will remain on file in the Executive Dean of Student’s office for two years. If no further violations of academic honesty are reported, the file will become inactive.

4. After a second violation of Academic Honesty, a HOLD will be placed on the student’s account and the student will be required to meet with the Executive Dean of Students.

5. Additional sanctions may be imposed by the Executive Dean of Students in cases of grievous violations of academic honesty, or for a continued pattern of violations.

Appeal Process

1. If the accused student contests the faculty member's decision, he/she may request a meeting with the Academic Department Dean or Director within 30 days of receiving notification of the Academic Honesty Concern Report.

2. Within 10 business days of receiving the student request for a meeting, the Academic Department Dean or Director will coordinate a meeting (or a conference call if necessary) regarding the alleged incident of academic dishonesty. Official notification of this meeting should be in writing via email to the student’s MyChemeketa email address. The purpose of the meeting is for the student to hear the charges and present his/her side of the case. The Academic Department Dean or Director will consider any evidence submitted and interview persons as warranted. The Academic Department Dean or Director determines if the action recommended by the faculty member is appropriate. If the student misses the meeting, the faculty member and Academic Department Dean or Director may proceed with the process to completion.

3. Within ten business days of the meeting, the Academic Department Dean or Director will send written notification of the results of the appeal to the student, and faculty member via email.

4. The decision of the Academic Department Dean or Director is final. There is no appeal beyond this point.
