CHANGING RESIDENCE

Residency for tuition purposes is determined at the time of admission to Chemeketa Community College. Changes to residency status may be requested for up to one term prior to the current term, the current time or future terms only. To apply for a change in residency status for tuition purposes, students should follow these steps:

1. Student completes an Application to Change Residency form, available on the public website.
2. In order to be considered for a change, Chemeketa requires proof of residency. A permanent residence shall be verified by specific documentation. Student must provide at least one document that includes a date to show physical presence and intent to reside in Oregon, name of the student printed on the documents, and a physical address in Oregon.¹

Such documentation may include, but is not limited to:

- Oregon Driver License or ID card
 - Any item delivered by the United States Postal Services, FedEx, or UPS sent by a verifiable business or government agency
 - Oregon vehicle title or registration card
 - Official correspondence issued by an educational institution (i.e. high school transcript, scholarship letter, etc.)
 - Financial account statements
 - Redacted tax forms with Oregon address (most current)
 - Active Duty military ID, copy of orders in Oregon
 - Oregon Voter registration card
 - Utility bills (gas, water, power, telephone)
 - Immigration documents (Visa, change of status application verification)
 - Documentation of entry into a legal agreement in Oregon (marriage, divorce, etc.)
 - Documentation of ownership of residential property or of continuous occupancy of rented or leased property in Oregon
 - Selective Service registration
 - Recent Veteran: LES, DD214
 - Documentation of public assistance, rehabilitation, unemployment or other Oregon state services
3. In the table below is an explanation of the different categories from which you may be assessed residency status for tuition purposes. You may be eligible to change residency status if you are transitioning from a non-resident tuition category to a resident tuition category.
