

Business Operations Series—6000

ACCOUNTING FOR FUNDS

The associate vice president of financial management will be responsible to the college president/chief executive officer for the proper accounting of all Chemeketa Community College funds.

College revenue will be received, recorded, and accounted for by Business Services or other departments or locations authorized by the associate vice president of financial management.

July 17, 1985

Adopted College Board of Education

September 20, 2006; March 16, 2011; October 15, 2014;
September 21, 2016; July 26, 2017

Revised College Board of Education