

Human Services Program

go.chemeketa.edu/humanservices

The Human Services program offers training for entry-level positions in human service agencies. The Human Services degrees and certificates combine academic coursework. Practicum must equal 25 credits of supervised field work at two different sites, each of which is at least two terms long. Students select one of two degrees: Addiction Studies or Social Services.

Post baccalaureate students are eligible to complete the Addiction Counselor Certification Preparation (ACCP) program and earn a one-year certificate. It is recommended that you contact Christina Steiger (Christina.steiger@chemeketa.edu) for advising.

The program has special admission requirements and enrollment limits, and there is a deadline for applications. Students in the Addiction Studies program that are recovering from chemical dependency are encouraged to enter the program but must have a minimum of two years of continuous sobriety in an unrestricted environment in order to commence practicum. Social Services practicum does not have this limitation. Criminal history limitations apply to students in this program as well.

By enrolling in PLP121, Introduction to Prior Learning Portfolio, students may be able to earn credits for prior learning acquired through jobs, non-credit classes, community or volunteer service, or individual study. For more information, call 503.399.5114.

Program Outcomes

Students completing the AAS degrees and the ACCP certificate should be able to:

- Describe the nature of human systems: individual, group, organization, community, and society, and their major interactions.
- Describe the conditions that promote or limit optimal functioning in the major human systems.
- Identify and select interventions that promote client growth and goal attainment.
- Plan, implement, and evaluate interventions.
- Select interventions that are congruent with the values of one's self, clients, the employing organization, and the human services profession.
- Utilize process skills to plan and implement services.
- Adapt assessment skills and interventions to a variety of settings.
- Comprehend and recognize the worth and uniqueness of the individual, including race, culture, ethnicity, gender, religion, learning style, abilities, sexual orientation, age, social class, and other expressions of diversity.

In addition to the outcomes above, students completing the Addiction Studies degree and the Addiction Counselor Certification Preparation certificate should be able to:

- Describe, identify, assess, and treat substance use disorders.

Addiction Counselor Certification Preparation Certificate of Completion

In addition to tuition, estimated costs for students who complete the courses listed below are books, $1,937; class fees, $63; universal fee, $1,062; CADC candidate registry, $50; and equipment and supplies, $231; measles vaccine: cost varies per provider. Contact the Financial Aid Office at 503.399.5018 to find out if you qualify for help with these costs.

This one-year certificate program is designed for individuals with a baccalaureate or master's degree seeking the necessary coursework and practical experience to enable them to compete for employment in the field of substance use disorder treatment. This certificate prepares students to take the Oregon Level I Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselors (CADC) exam.

You may earn a certificate of completion by successfully completing the required 59 credit hours with a grade of "C" or better in all Human Services courses and a minimum of 15 credits of practicum. Students interested in this program must attend the orientation or meet personally with Christina Steiger (christina.steiger@chemeketa.edu) advisor to the program, prior to beginning coursework.

The Addiction Studies degree prepares students to work in public and private agencies treating chemically-dependent people and their families. Training sites include both residential and outpatient programs.

The Addiction Studies degree is recognized by the National Association of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselors as an educational provider. Most courses may be used for continuing education requirements for many certified and licensed professionals. The curriculum includes courses in alcohol and drug information, family dynamics, case management, and individual and group counseling skills.

An associate of applied science degree is awarded upon successful completion of the required 99 credit hours with a grade of "C" or better in WR121 and all Human Services courses. Twenty-five credits of practicum are required, at least 15 of which must be in a substance use disorder studies placement; 10 credits can be satisfied at a social services placement.
