Graduation requirements are based on a student's catalog year. By default your catalog is set as the term you turn in this form to declare your major. To track your progress in Chemeketa's degree tracking tool it is important that you declare your major as soon as possible. Chemeketa policy allows students that have attended within the last five years, and that have not had a break in enrollment of two years or more during that time, to choose to graduate under any set of major requirements available within the last 5 years. You may in consultation with your advisor you choose to graduate under a different catalog year than the default assigned to you using this form.
